Role profile

A Marketing Manager is responsible for the marketing activities and strategy of their organisation. From overseeing the marketing budget, planning and implementing campaigns to tracking their success and reporting back to senior management. They have a strategic focus, ensuring marketing activities align to brand guidelines and shape business needs and objectives and deliver a return on investment. A Marketing Manager will develop, position and promote the products or services of the company, selecting appropriate channels and using appropriate messaging. Being a Marketing Manager requires in-depth experience of marketing as well as great communication skills, high levels of creativity and the confidence to manage a team of marketers.

Delivery model

Each and every business is different, which is why we offer a range of delivery options – face-to-face support, online learning and residential modules. All are designed to meet the requirements of the specific apprenticeship standard and professional qualification – ensuring each apprentice develops the skills, knowledge and behaviours specified. E-portfolio systems will be used from sign-up through to completion to minimise the use of paper, allowing our Business Coaches to track learner progress on an ongoing basis to achieve timely completions.

Duration

Typically, 24 months + End Point Assessment

Professional registration and progression

This apprenticeship is designed to meet the requirements for registration as an Associate Member (ACIM) of the Chartered Institute of Marketing (CIM), dependent on them meeting the required criteria. Typical progression routes from marketing manager are head of marketing and marketing director.
